

Cederholm Retreat Cottage Use Policy

The Cederholm Retreat Cottage was established in the spring of 2014 in gratitude for the episcopacy of the Rt. Rev. Bud Cederholm, according to the vision he shared with his wife, Ruth Ann Cederholm, as a place of rest and reflection for clergy, clergy spouses, or clergy couples.

The Cottage may be booked by clergy, clergy spouses, or clergy couples up to one year in advance on a first come, first served basis. An individual may hold no more than one reservation on the books at any given time. Reservations may be from one to a maximum of seven nights. BCH holds the right to book unreserved space for other conference/retreat guests.

There is no formal charge to ordained clergy for use of the cottage for personal or family retreat time. Retreatants are invited to contribute a "Freewill Offering" to defray costs. Meals, served in the BCH Dining Center, may be added at the standard BCH rate(s) as available.

The Cottage has a kitchenette that may be used to create simple meals. The kitchenette includes a microwave, (2) burners, toaster, coffee maker, a small sink, and small refrigerator.

Please call or text our Host cell (603) 562-6515 when you arrive and depart.

Arrival: 3pm      Departure: 10am

Leave dirty linens and towels in a pillow case in the bathroom